This is one of the most unique books on UFO's that I have read in a while. Nick does it again!

Short daily stories from Nick Redfern. Going to pass it on to others.

I have enjoyed reading this book, I like the brief descriptions of events.

Nick does it again! A great book full of great stories, one per every day of the year.

Nick Redfern, a foremost authority on UFO phenomena offers 365 individual stories from countries of every corner of the world including UFO crash events, face to face encounters with extraterrestrials, military personnel, pilots, and official recollections of sightings and personal experiences and cosmic cover ups. READ THIS BOOK to see that perhaps out of ear of the unknown many limit themselves from even trying to see beyond the reality of this life to the possibilities of spiritual life and life forms that may exist on other planets. Nick discusses highly skilled remote viewers who tap into psychic fields of energy, crop circles, people who have actually seen the bodies of extraterrestrials, and tells how his own father, who was a pilot in the United Kingdom had an experience and a sighting of a UFO. Nick had firsthand knowledge of an amazing phenomena. Many interesting detailed stories clearly awakening our imagination and our hopes that life exists elsewhere in the Universe.

I will not read bogus books about "Aliens". They are written by crackpot con-artists for gullible dweebs and twerps. The White House launched a new hotline recently for people to report crimes committed by "criminal aliens," but some of the callers instead are using the line to report cases of extraterrestrial contact and UFO sightings. Typical UFO fans - too dumb to figure it out. This book is nonsense. Where is the proof? Where is the evidence? Let's see some real permanent evidence of these "Aliens". Unambiguous hard physical evidence. And yes, Von Danidork is a convicted fraud.
