Customer Reviews

This book was extremely enjoyable to read. Characters were well formed and believable. Crichton has never disappointed me in his writings. Definitely kept me guessing during the book and when I thought I knew what would happen it didn't.

Read the book and saw the movie fifteen years ago. It was nice to spend couple days with Sanders, happy with his personal life and work. Sexual harassment, office politics turns him inside out.

Michael Crichton fans will find this tale just as compelling as his other blockbusters. A great story, suspenseful to the very end, recounting a situation that is the reverse of those we typically hear about in the press.

Couldn't put it down. A great read as well as a learning experience. An easy 5 stars. A good read for corporate America. It really happened.

- disappointed - literally well written and suspenseful, but some convenient incidences suddenly arise to bail out the hero at the end -

While I found the story to be interesting, there was too much vulgar language. I don't know why authors feel the need to constantly use the f word and other foul language. It doesn't add anything worthwhile to the story.

Crichton was an extremely talented writer! Disclosure is immediately engaging and remains so from start to finish! You won't be disappointed.

It took me a little to get into it but once I did glad to have chosen it. Michael Crichton is always a good read. Have read several of his books and enjoyed all of them.
