I got this for my husband for Christmas because he loves making wings, and he was always looking up recipes on his phone. To avoid having a deep-fried phone, I thought the book would be a good gift. He LOVES it. He doesn't like to read, generally, but he'll keep the book handy and skim through the recipes when he has time. Thanks!

A great stocking stuffer for my husband the wing lover. He has just started making his own, and this book was an easy to read and follow place to start!

Dirty food-spills, didn't bother to even wipe it down and overpriced for sure, on that basis! Ugh! How do I send it back> No packing slip???

Excellent recipes, great detail, love how the book goes as far as explaining the ingredients and the brands of ingredients that work the best.

I got this book for my grandson who is a wing addict. Looking through it the content did not impress me and the recipe for the original Buffalo wings is wrong. I have the real one and the dipping sauce is the key as is the use of Trappys hot sauce.

To me, Chicken Wings are one of the 4 major food groups... I've been developing recipes and cooking wings for years. I decided to try the book because I love trying new wing recipes and it was inexpensive (total impulse purchase.) I had very low expectations because it was not by a well known chef and was a cheap book. Often the recipes in books like that are ok, but nothing special. I have been very pleasantly surprised by this book! All the recipes I've tried have been accurate and produced great results. My favorite are the carolina wings (though not a "true" carolina barbecue sauce as I am used to it, it worked great with the wings!) The ONLY problem I have with the recipes is that several of them have too much sugar and produce results that are too sweet. Some of the sugar will be in there to help the wings color up nicely as the sugar caramelizes, but the results are too sweet. I have gone back and adjusted some of the recipes to cut the sugar for both taste and health reasons. If you like cooking wings and want to try a bunch of wing recipes this is a good consolidated source.

Hugh Carpenter keeps creating incredible books. This is my third book and they are all excellent. Mr Carpenter you should have your own TV show. Thanks
