Customer Reviews

Very helpful. Helps me engage in class discussions

Great asset for my 1L Civ Pro course. The outlines are short enough that you can read them right before class and yet detailed enough that you don't even have to read the book.

Great condition!

Excellent supplement to the textbook. Will save you considerable time preparing for class.

Good book. Briefs are not that good but it helps you understand the cases.

The Casenotes Briefs really help me understand the case. I also use it when I need to quickly review the case.

It is really helpful for first year law school student, i think. Its focus is great and I like it.

Briefs are little more than a cut and paste from the book, slightly paraphrased. Cases are not explained more plainly to offer a better grasp than the book, rendering it useless for particularly confusing cases. While it might feel comforting to have these in class for cold calls, you'd be just as well off (and often better off) with free briefs easily found online. Invest instead in a good hornbook or E&E (Glannon often recommended for Yeazell textbook) recommended by your professor and/or other students.
