Thomas Flintham studied Fine Art at De Montfort University in Leicester, and in 2009 he graduated with a Masters degree in Illustration from the Camberwell College of the Arts in London. His artwork is influenced by an assortment of books and films, as well as his love of comics and video games.

He currently lives in London, specializing in children's illustration and working with such publishers as Scholastic UK, Templar, Bloomsbury, and Simon & Schuster.

This may only be 8 pages but it is 8 VERY detailed pages. Lots to color! It has provided me with hours and hours of fun and I am still 3 pages away from finishing. Highly recommend. Each page is one-sided (there are games and things on the back but these are not part of the main picture. The cardstock is very heavy and will likely resist bleed through. The entire thing will pull out like an accordion so that you can display it as one long page. The first page is perforated for easy removal. As mentioned the back has smaller individual pictures to color and a few activities, drawing, searching the main picture for items etc....For me just the 8 page "poster" was worth the cost. I'm sure I'll still be coloring in it for some time yet.

I am slowly working my way through this little book. The pictures are detailed and quirky. Is great fun to do, and because the pictures contain the unexpected, you can let your artistic imagination go wild with the colours you use.

Bought this as a present. Loved it so much, have ordered the companion adult coloring book about Paris! It's not actually a "book", it's a cool foldout of eight pages which makes a great poster if you wish to keep it. Similar to a map, so you can appreciate how large this city is! Hours of fun coloring in this "book", and learning about London. Think I'll order one of each for myself!

Fun, crazy stroll through my favorite city ! Different from all the other coloring books on the market. Have a go !

Drawings of citiscapes were good but the people were caricatured which i was not wanting. Prime service good as always.

Lots of detail you'll find tiny markers for parts of this one. Looking forward to keeping busy with it! Love of the different sites it shows of one of my favorite towns, London.

Coloring has made a big comeback, especially for adults--Nice picture selections of London--Good price--
