There are some really well thought out drink recipes in this book. Don't be put off by the different brand requirements because they nicely compliment the drink or can be substituted with something you may have easier access to. I've tried a few and am looking forward to trying some more.

Ok ... if you like cocktail books with some unusual but tasty recipes ... this is a good book. You would have to have an in creditably full selection of ingredients to make very many of these in your home bar. Very crafty ... perhaps a little too crafty.

interesting book, interesting glass, great recipes

Great cocktail recipes and ideas

Very interesting copy; great recipes and attractive photos. Fun to read.

This cocktail is solid and has a handful of worthy recipes, but when comparing it to the best bar book in the industry (Death & Co), it just doesn't offer much.

This book, its content and photographs are perfection! This book is a reminder of what cocktail parties used to be like, and it's an inspiration for cocktail parties to be held. The recipes are easy to follow and I have loved stopping by my local antique stores to see what coupes I can find.

This is such a delight! Having fabulous recipes for delicious, easy to make cocktails all in one book is a must for any host or hostess. I've made several of these as the "featured" drink for our events and parties, and each one has been a huge hit. Brian Hart Hoffman has gathered all the best recipes together for us in this beautiful book filled with drinks, and beautiful eye candy photos, too. It doesn't get much better than this! Buy two, one for you, one for a gift. Okay, make that six. Every host or hostess will love this book, and you'll be invited back, I guarantee it!
