The Bubba Rose Biscuit Company was founded by Jessica Disbrow Talley and her husband, Eric Talley, to provide healthy, preservative-free treats for their dogs and their dogs' friends in Brooklyn, NY. Word spread, and now dogs around the world are requesting their goodies. You can, too, by visiting them at www.bubbarosebiscuitco.com.

Now I don't have a dog as a pet but my brother and his wife do. Since my sister-in-law loves to bake, I thought I might buy her this book for her birthday. Apparently it was a success. My brother told me that their dog loved the biscuits and couldn't get enough. My sister-in-law was delighted with the challenge of baking dog biscuits. I think this is called a win-win situation. I can certainly recommend this book and I suspect that Jack (their dog) will second my recommendation.

Nice selection of recipes! Far superior to store bought 'treats'. Especially beneficial for Senior dogs, and those with food allergies. Koalabug

My huge Great Pyrenees needs gluten free cookies and treats -- so I bought this book. It is a WONDERFUL treat cookbook for dogs who eat gluten and those who do not. Every batch is a success. This saves me money because gluten free treats for a 173-pound dog really add up! It costs about half as much to make them at home with really premium ingredients. Thank you for this charming book.

I have made many of these treats. I usually substitute the flour since the recommended flours can be hard to find and are pricey. I use rye a lot. These are easy to make, most have few ingredients and most of the ingredients are pretty easy to find locally. I use silicone molds and they work perfectly. One batch makes about 30 treats using the silicone mold. All the doggies give these recipes 4 paws up!

Purchased for my daughter and dogs. They love the several recipes we've made so far. The batches yield a lot and can fit tightly stacked into a 1 at ziplock bag for storage. Do refrigerate or freeze extras as they are fresh and no preservatives they will go bad sitting on a counter.

This book has some pretty good recipes. The peanut butter one is good my dog loved them. I haven't yet baked any other recipes but they all look good.

Or, I should say my dogs LOVE it! Great, easy to make recipes using healthy ingredients. Last trip to the vet, not one of our pups would take the store bought biscuits offered. You won't be disappointed with this book.

Have made several recipes for my pup and he loves them. Easy to follow and wide variety of treats.
