Jacqueline Heriteau: Jacqui is one of America's most highly regarded garden writers. She has written more than thirty books on gardening and cooking and countless articles for magazines and newspapers. She was General Editor of The Good Housekeeping Illustrated Encyclopedia of Gardening and the recipient of the American Association of Nurserymen's Communicator of the Year Award. Jacqui is a Fellow of the Garden Writers Association. Â Holly Hunter Stonehill: Holly grew up in Connecticut in a family whose shared interests were gardening and cooking. She tended the vegetable plot and the flower gardens, gathered fruit for jellies and jams, and tasted and tested recipes for her mother's cookbooks. Holly has co-authored two cookbooks with Jacqui and a series of grow-and-cook-it herbs and spices calendars. Liz Ball is a horticultural writer, photographer, researcher, and teacher. Over the past 20 years her articles and photographs have appeared in numerous catalogs, magazines and books. She has co-authored nine books on plant and landscape care for Rodale and other publishers. She is the sole author of many others, including Cool Springs Press titles: My Pennsylvania Garden, a Journal (2000); Month-By-Month Gardening in Pennsylvania (revised 2007) and Pennsylvania Gardener's Guide (2002). James Fizzell has more than 50 years of hands-on horticultural experience, making him the source other experts turn to with their toughest turf, vegetable, landscape and plant problems. Fizzell is well known to Midwest gardeners through numerous appearances on radio and TV and from articles for neighborhood weekly newspapers. Jim has written more than twelve books for Midwest gardeners for Cool Springs Press. Joe Lampi, (aka Joe Gardener®) is the host of two National television shows: GardenSMART on PBS and DIY Network's Fresh from the Garden. His latest project includes producing and hosting a brand new series on PBS; Growing a Greener World. He's also a syndicated columnist and author, including his latest book; The Green Gardener's Guide; Simple Significant Actions to Protect and Preserve the Planet.

We moved into the suburbs of Boston from the city and had a yard for the first time when we got this book. We got a number of other gardening books over the two years that we've been in our house but this remains our most useful and most read one. It is specific to New England as opposed to more generic books. The plants it highlights are ones that do well in New England without a lot of work. The book is well organized. We especially love the month-by-month recommendations for each plant category. I would recommend this to any first-time gardeners as well as experienced ones in New England.

Marvelous book! Well written, good directions, pictures, and ideas for every season of planting in the northeast, highly recommend it!
