The Breakfast Cookbook: Breakfast Recipes From The Comfort Food Cook Book (Comfort Food Cookbooks 1)

Synopsis

This cookbook may be the best breakfast cookbook you'll ever buy. Perhaps even the only one you'll ever need. It won't be the largest cookbook on your shelf and it certainly won't be the prettiest. There is no fancy food photography here, only delicious recipes that have been tried and tested over and over again at the family table with simple instructions to follow from beginning to its tasty end. You won't find any low-calorie recipes here either. This is comfort food at its finest – rich, luxurious and deeply satisfying. Ranging from Southern diner standbys to classics from breakfast tables in the UK and Australia, these recipes are designed to start your day in a new and delicious way.

Customer Reviews

The Breakfast Cookbook: Breakfast Recipes from the Comfort Food Cook Book (Comfort Food Cookbooks 1) by June Harold This book contains a lot of family recipes where the author is not concerned about the nutrition or photos of the items made. There are no photos and no nutritional information. Each recipe includes a summary of the dish, sometimes who made it and what country it originated from. Sometimes servings are mentioned. Ingredient list at times in the same recipe starts out in metric then goes to US measurements. Also detailed instructions in how to make and bake. 16 recipes in total for comfort foods.

Love it. Price is right.

Great gift for the bachelors in your life or sending your kid off to college. Fun, fast and easy recipes that can be enjoyed all year round. Sadly, I already knew how to make breakfast when I read this book but I could think of a few folks in my life that I want to gift this to.

I'm not the best cook but this book really helped me out. The recipes are thorough and easy to follow. My favorite out of this book is the dinner style hash browns! Following the directions made my hash browns golden! Before this book, I usually burn mine, but following these directions helped me dramatically!
