Customer Reviews

This should not be the first book by Baha'u'llah or about the Bahai's a seeker after Truth should read. It assumes you already know the basic tenets of the faith. The style, vocabulary and artistry is that of a high class Persian of the mid-nineteenth century. The translator, his great-grandson, uses a higher standard of English from the mid-twentieth century than is common today. That said, this is THE book of laws and behavior for Bahai's; a must-have for anyone studying the Baha'i Faith in depth.

Great Book, definitely a Holy Book. A good combination of poetic sentencing, and peaceful but power guidance to the masses. Take heed world.

This is a book of laws and guidelines for Bahai. They can be incorporated into daily life by those who endeavor toward higher spirituality.

It is a treasure to have it on my kindle. Very powerful Words! It is a 'must read' Book for all ages.

I haven't finished reading it but it is clear and authentic! It describes what is required of a Baha'í. Thank you for having it available.

This book, useful for any student of the Baha'í Faith, is a summary of the main teachings, laws, and practices of the Faith of Baha'u'llah. Any student of comparative religion will find this book highly valuable. Not only is it written by the Founder of the Baha'í Faith himself, it is crucial to understanding the complexities and practice and complete philosophy of the Baha'í Faith. But it is not any easy book to read since it covers aspects of Islamic philosophy that are the historical background of the Baha'í Faith. I recommend it to any reader who wishes a more complete picture of it's laws. Students of comparative religion will find this a fascinating book, covering as it does many aspects of religion most Westerners usually do not associate with religion. The translation is similar to old biblical English is also fascinating but yet it is readable and contemporary. Students of the Baha'í Faith, Islamic studies, Middle Eastern studies, etc., will also find this book important and intriguing.

If you have spiritual questions and would like answers this book may interest you as It is the most holy book to Baha'is, The Baha'í Faith is the newest global religion and a long list of progressive revelations. This book is a must read for anyone looking for spiritual answers.
