Lt. Col. Charles M. Bussey served in World War II and in the Korean War and flew military aircraft for twenty-four years. He retired in 1966. His decorations include the Silver Star, the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star, the Air Medal, the Purple Heart, and the Army Commendation Medal. --This text refers to the Paperback edition.

delivery so quickly. This product cuts through bread like a hot product through butter. Great product! recommend it to my friend. great, and very happy. i have bought one before, very good seller . arrive on time. This is my first review ever. This product is so sharp it is scary! Best investment ever at a great price! i love it , as the price.

First person account of a young officer's experience dealing with racial issues in both the US at home and in the Army. Well told, with several very compelling incidents, including the author's heroism at Yechon, but many others. Some heroic, some not.
