Mother Night: Myths, Stories And Teachings For Learning To See In The Dark

Synopsis

Where is the memory of who we really are, who sent us here, and what our work is here? And why so often are we feeling unusual, so different, so eccentric, so belonging to a tribe of one? Dr. Clarissa Pinkola Estes, published in 34 languages and one of the most far-reaching artist-psychoanalysts of our time, teaches that in archetypal imagination, "Mother Night is the quintessential medial woman, the woman who can walk in two worlds... 'the one who knows' and who can reveal solid ways of living and unleashing creative life in both worlds."

Customer Reviews

This collection is beautiful. I love the way Dr. Clarissa narrates, her style, but overall, what she has to share. I know that not everybody is into this wisdom, but if you are, you will not regret buying this CDs. One thing though, I think is better to buy the digital version, CDs are no longer being used. Also, I did not get the full set of CD's which is a complain about the seller (knowing stuff), but not about her work. I really like it.

Attention all women:) Run, don't walk, to secure a copy of these magical and inspirational audio teachings by Clarissa Pinkola Estes. Her voice is pure liquid gold, her teachings are multifaceted diamonds !! Her soulful lessons, derived from myths and stories, will light a flame under every creative being and bring deeper understanding to what it means to be a human. . . the lessons will simply melt your heart

My mother passed on Women Who Run With the Wolves to me when I was in the dark stages of my teens, (about 15 years old). My three sisters have also read these tales that might as well be true, considering how effective they are to real life. Together we read these magical stories that seemed to clear away the build-up of past hurts and painful experiences. Dr. Clarissa Pinkola-Estes has this gift of healing through her poetic words and she is a universal mother that gives strength to all women who run, (and the men that run with us). I have purchased Mother Night on pure faith, knowing that this is the next step to being closer to that ineffable wild spirit that nurtures, heals, and protects, the wild spirit that Dr. Pinkola Estes channels. Somehow her deep-rooted, ancient wisdom reconnects the body/mind/soul. My love and gratitude to her and her work can only be described as a pure, wild heart.

I cannot express my gratitude strongly enough for keeping the spirit alive as Clarissa does in everything she touches. I am a 6th generation American Indian woman and I resonate so closely with her work. As a teacher, therapist, and sales specialist I need a lot of support to keep the creative fire burning.

I've really enjoyed this audio set by Clarissa Pinkola Estes. I have a number of her works and find all of them meaningful and useful for providing a new way to think about issues or concerns I may have. These works provide unusual perspectives on psychological and emotional trials common to many and open the listener up to new ways of living with and dealing with these trials. She truly is an amazing canatadora!

Her work is a gift to humanity.

learning to see in the dark.....and walking through the 'dark night of the soul'.....it seems endemic to the human experience

I always love her CDs. She reaches a deeper level of awareness that resonates with me.
