Wagging Tails In Heaven: The Gift Of Our Pets Everlasting Love

Synopsis

The Truth About Cats And Dogs And Their Existence In Heaven. . .Will our departed pets greet us on the other side? Are their spirits watching and protecting us right now? Will they be happy? If you've ever loved and lost a pet, you understand the power of a truly special bond. Animal or human, we are all God's creatures-and the love we share must surely be eternal. In this enlightening book, author Gary Kurz offers surprising and comforting evidence of an animal afterlife. You'll discover what the Bible says about the souls of animals; how pet angels devote themselves to humanity; what your dog or cat might look like in heaven; and what to expect when you're reunited on a spiritual plane. You'll also hear amazing firsthand accounts of "ghost pet" visitations, animal communications from beyond, and heartwarming tales of heroism, loyalty, and everlasting love. Deeply moving and truly inspiring, Kurz's book goes beyond his acclaimed Cold Noses at the Pearly Gates-proving once and for all that the pets we cherish will stay with us throughout eternity. . . . "For those of us who love our pets so passionately, Gary Kurz thoughtfully and thoroughly gives hope that death is not the end for our furry, scaled, and feathered friends." -Francine Hornberger, co-author of So You Think You Know About Cats?

Gary Kurz is a retired Coast Guard officer who served his country faithfully and honorably for over 30 years. He and his wife have a love for animals and a concern for others who share their love. He lives in Manhattan, Kansas, near Kansas City. Visit his website at coldnosesbook.com.

This was a really strange book. I almost stopped reading it about 3/4 of the way through because the author seemed to be so bogged down in his descriptions of, and theories about, everything but the loss of pets. I began to wonder if he had an editor and/or whether this book was self-published. My opinion is that he should stick to preaching and not try to write because what he has written is darn near incomprehensible in parts. I have never written a review like this before but then I have never read a book like this before either. I am a Christian so I really have no objections to his views that seemed to offend some people but I did find some of his "speculation" (as he called it) pretty far out. There were some comforting parts (hence the two stars which was being generous) but they could have been covered a lot more succinctly. I think there was, maybe, three chapters that were worth my time to read. Sorry, but it had to be said.

Having a hard time getting through this book. Seems like a lot of contradictions in it . It is like going to a bad psychic for a session of readings , you almost have to read into what you feel is right .. Bottom line is that animals are God's four legged creatures made to be our angels in furs !!! We will be reunited with them no doubt in my mind .

This is the third book by this author I have read and I wholeheartedly recommend all three books. The author states his views clearly and then back them up with good examples and scripture. Obviously, he is an animal lover at heart, without being silly or using fantasy. He offers comfort and hope for anyone who has lost a beloved pet,

I really liked Wagging Tails in Heaven by Gary Kurz. Kurz does an excellent job of writing about the afterlife of pets and backing it up using the Bible. Kurz does a great job of setting your minds at ease about the loss of a much loved pet. I highly recommend this books to readers who: have lost a precious pet and wondered about pets and afterlife and books about Christian faith.

It appears as if Gary Kurz's book deviates from offering comfort at the loss of a pet to various references in support of his favorite passages in scripture. Provided only minimum comfort to me though I'm sure it was well-meaning on his part.

This book is a great book for anybody who has lost their beloved pet, Gary Kurz helps heal the wounds of losing your pet, and helps connect you with God again, as it should be. He gives you the hope and belief that we all know about God loving all the things he made. When I got this book, I lost my beloved Molly, and I wasn't feeling to good about God, but to me this book came to me to tell me that God is in the works, and by Gary Kurzs, religious beliefs, with compassion for us, it got me through the bad feelings I had. I recommend this book to all that believe in God, and all that need comfort for their loss.

Ordered this for my sister who had just lost her dog after 15 years. She was disappointed that there was more technical stuff than uplifting content.

Too sad to read. This is a writing that talks to Christians primarily.
