kids love it.

I gave this book as a gift to my 7 year old daughter, she loved it. Since getting the book we have made several of the recipes, we have made porcupine meatballs, which are everyone's favorite. Egg in a hole, Frog cupcakes and a few others. It also has little spaces all throughout the book. it will ask you a question and she filled in the answer. It is just precious. It will be something I can give to her one day when she grows up. It also has a lot of different things we can do together, so far we have made homemade paint and flubber. It was a lot of fun. I enjoyed spending the time with her and I know she did too. I am planning to buy several and give as gifts to friends and family. I think every person that has children should have a copy to make their own Kitchen Memories.

Love this book, what a great way to spend time with a child in the kitchen. I gave this book to my granddaughter and grandson for Christmas. This was her favorite gift . Not only is she excited to cook, she actually sat down for hours looking at and reading this cookbook and filling in the great questions that it asks like... who is your favorite teacher, what sports do you like...what was your favorite dogs name. Not only is she going to learn how to cook but there wasn't a tablet in her hand, she was reading a book.

This is a GREAT book. It has great recipes for you and your kids to do together.. along with fun little activities. My kids love the bright and interesting pages that are on the inside as well. This book holds up to it's title, because it is definitely unique and FULL of fabulous recipes to make memories in the kitchen with your children! 5 stars! I love it!

There are so many great projects in this cookbook! I love it! It has recipes, projects and places to record things.I love it!

This book is so easy to use, It makes planning fun time with your kids a breeze! The recipes use easy to find ingredients!!
