Customer Reviews

"Hip Hop has been woven into the world culture for 40 years now, so why wouldn't it inspire food as well? There are all aspects of HipHop, but the best of it has unique blending of ingredients, detailed preparation as well as great taste. Rappers Delight connects like great food, makes too much sense." -- Chuck D, Public Enemyâ€™s "THIS IS DEFINITELY SOME FOOD FOR THE SOUL THATâ€™LL MAKE PEOPLE HAPPY TO CHEW ON." -- Phesto, Souls of Mischief

Bought this to put in a white elephant gift exchange at Christmas with friends and included a set of 4 ramekins to make the LL Souffle from the cookbook. It was stolen a few times during the white elephant gift exchange after it was opened, so I call that a success! Obviously, I didn't make any of the recipes as it was a gift, but they sounded great when I flipped through it when it arrived. The recipe names are hilarious. I'm a pretty well-seasoned cook, but it didn't seem like the recipes were too difficult (there was a difficulty level noted for each recipe) nor did it seem that the ingredients would be too hard to find.

I loved it. the recipes weren't anything crazy or too complicated and basically just added a hip hop themed name to regular recipes. It would have been cooler if these were researched as being the favorites of each of the individual rappers/groups. The real highlight of the book is it being a medium to show off the artwork which is really nicely composed.

Bought for my dad who likes hip hop and cooking. Hopefully he can listen to some nice tunes while making some delicious food!

I should have looked at the dimensions, but when it arrived it was much smaller than I had expected. Much smaller. That doesn't really matter though unless you are hoping to lay the book out when you are, oh I don't know....cooking. Its so compact that it will be difficult to keep the book open to the page you are on without cracking the binding all the way open. I get that it is a novelty item...but it is a useful novelty item with actual recipes that honestly do look really good!

Haven't even tried the recipes yet, but the puns alone were enough to make us want to buy and recommend this book.

Delivery date was set pretty far off, but we received it 2 weeks earlier than the earliest estimated delivery date. Bought this for my hiphop loving chef boyfriend who LOVES IT! It's really cool, especially if you love illustrations! It's a fun gift idea.

so funny and creative!
