The Amy Binegar-Kimmes-Lyle Book Of Failures: A Funny Memoir Of Missteps, Inadequacies And Faux Pas

Synopsis

THE AMY BINEGAR-KIMMES-LYLE BOOK OF FAILURES is a humorous memoir. If you have ever failed at love, finances, been fired, not fit in, self-diagnosed yourself with disorders and conditions and/or said "I really need to get my s together," this is the book for you. "THE FUNNIEST, WITTIEST, AND MOST RELATABLE BOOK A GIRL COULD READ." -A. Evers of Bluelinesscritpure "Don't Read While Drinking (Your coffee, wine, etc. will shoot through your nose from laughing.)" - R. Johnson of Ivy Owl Reviews "You will definitely appreciate your own family dysfunction as you read through Amy's Book of Failures. Can't wait to see more." -S. Pacey Northside Woman Magazine Delight in Amy Lyle's 45 years of missteps, inadequacies and faux pas. You may appreciate your own dysfunction a little more as you take a journey through Amy's debacles including: "I Was Not Talking to You," where Amy mistakes a handsome man waving at her as a potential suitor but in reality he was only trying to inform her that her belt was dragging on the freeway and "In the Neighborhood," where members of a cult moving in concurred with a suspicious decline in the cat population. You will relish the chapters entitled "Calls from Sharon," where Amy's best friend rants about her kids not getting a fair shot because public schools are "so political," as her OB/GYN reported her vagina was "too clean" and how the most eligible bachelor from 1982 married a whore. Enjoy "I'm Going to Kill You," where Amy compares her lack of sleep from her husband's snoring to CIA agents extracting secrets from a POW. Feel 20-32% better about your own life after reading "Getting Divorced Sucks," where 911 was called after Amy had an adverse reaction from taking Xanax. THE AMY-BINEGAR-KIMMES-LYLE BOOK OF FAILURES is for anyone who has experienced their own disasters or takes pleasure in the failures of others. The book has been featured in The Atlanta Journal Constitution, Atlanta and Company morning Show, Northside Women magazine, Points North magazine, My Forsyth magazine, and many blogs. Includes Book Club questions. Comedy. Women humor. Funny non-fiction. Blended families. Essays.-

Clever, witty, relatable, AND hysterical. The format is perfect for a quick laugh, though you can also settle in and really enjoy each chapter. The "Calls from Sharon" are just flat out hilarious, and "Helen" is sweet, so there is also some depth here. Mostly, I sat and laughed till I couldn't breathe. These are short stories woven of comedy gold. Can't wait to read more from her, but until then, all of my friends are getting copies of this!

I started this tonight. I went to high school with Amy and knew she was funny, but didn't realize HOW much! A really great, funny, relatable, charming and utterly personable book. Congrats Amy! Job well done!

You must put this on your reading list! Hilarious from beginning to end! My favorite chapter was "Hot Italian Guy #1", I was laughing until I cried. You can't make this comedy up! Highly recommend for a summer read!

The Amy Binegar-Kimmes-Lyle Book of Failures brings the funny! Lyle's book is full of honest, vulnerable, life story humor—candidly shared moments that leave you feeling thankful you're not alone, as soda (or Prosecco) spurts out your nose after laughing too hard and fast. I read several scenes aloud to my husband. I reread other scenes, certain the author hadn't just written what she did. I was wrong. Lyle holds nothing back. It's refreshing. Buy this book and don't skip over the footnotes (you'll thank me later).

I ordered this book shortly after Amy Lyle's book launch. Was delighted to see that the book was delivered in the "on demand" print service which is incredible, I ordered the book and it was printed and shipped within 2 days. I've met Amy in person once, and I am here to tell you, she is truly one of the funniest and authentic person I have ever met! This woman is going places!

This book is absolutely hysterical. The chapter on the spa trip had me doubled over in laughter; tears streaming down my face. The entire book is hilarious short chapters that will have you smiling for hours. Peri Sanders

A must read for all of us who need validation that we don't suck as bad as we think we do!! Good luck putting this down...perfect read! Cover to cover...I think Amy is my sister from another mister! Fantastic book!! I'll be pimping her out to my other sisters from another misters because we all can relate to each chapter in 1 way or another.

I was looking for great summer read and this nailed it! Amy's straight talk and humor are a welcome break from all the perceived perfection on FB, Instagram, WeChat, etc. While reading the Madonna solo dance story, I was laughing so hard , my daughter asked me if I was ok. Thanks for making failures cool ,and more importantly, funny.
