I couldn't put this book down!

I received an Advance Reader Copy for Wrecked: The Beasts MC written by April Lust and voluntarily reviewed this book. Emma Ketchum left The Beasts and their MC lifestyle in her hometown Ashland, Oregon a few years ago and has never looked back. She has made her way through life all on her own and is almost finished vet school. Everything was coasting along just fine until she was attacked by a tattooed man on campus. A quick call to her dad had him drawing her back home, quickly, until he can figure out their next move. When Emma sets eyes on her father again, it is clear that he is very, very ill. But the attack on her appears to be personal, and her father, who ran the local chapter of The Beasts, wants her to be kept safe. His plan: she is to marry Kellan Mathers, the Vice President, the boy he had taken in long ago and treated as the son he never had. Kellan is stunned to see just how much she has changed from the scrawny, quiet, and mousy girl she used to be. Now, she is a triple threat: strong, confident, and smart. And gorgeous. Kellan definitely was not ready for her and was not wanting to marry anyone at all, except that Emma's dad has asked him to help protect his daughter, and he could not say no. Once they identify who is responsible for her attack, though, is the MC all going to be able to accept Emma back into the arms of a life she had so willingly left? And if they do, will she be willing to stay or just decide to leave them all again, once the threat has been dealt with? This was a good read with great storyline & characters and good, sexy chemistry between Emma and Kellan.

Emma left her dad 7 years ago and never looked back. Her dad Mac was the President of a Motorcycle Club and Emma always felt like he cared more for the club than her so she left. Emma has worked to pay her own way in life and college. She is going to college to become a veterinarian and when she has only one semester left she gets attacked by someone who gives her a message to give her dad. When she goes home to confront her dad she runs into Kellan her teenage crush and then finds out that her dad Mac is sick. Kellan is the vice-president of the Motorcycle Club and has been taking care of Mac since he found out that he had cancer. Kellan loves his uncomplicated life and doesn't want to be in any type of relationship. Kellan comes from an abusive family and is afraid that he will be just like his father if he gets into a relationship. So when Mac tells Kellan to marry his daughter Emma to keep her safe he can't believe it. Emma and Kellan are shocked and both tell Mac NO. But they finally decide to go through with it. But can Kellan keep Emma safe? I received this book as an ARC copy for a voluntarily honest review. This book is definitely worth your time to read. April Lust is an amazing writer and has written another amazing book.

I am a fan of MC books and April Lust books. She can write some awesome MC biker books, and she has done it again. This is a story that starts out as an arrangement to save the daughter of the president of the MC turns into a beautiful love story. The story is full of twists that you would not see coming. It is a great biker book and I would highly recommend it to first time readers of bikers or one who already feel in love with the MC bikers. This is a book you will want to keep in your collection to read over again.

Loved this book! Emma and Kellan were made for each other. This book will keep you on your toes. So much happens that you cannot put the book down. I loved Mac, Emma's Dad, was so glad Emma went back home to him when she did. There is everything in this book, love, hot steamy sex, violence, and a happy ever after. April Lust did it again. She is a wonderful writer and have read most of her books. This is a five star book! I voluntarily reviewed an ARC of this book.
