"Finbar & Fiona" is an endearing story of a kitten and houseplant who, despite their differences in interests, find a common ground to enjoy each other's company. As a preschool teacher, I will use this story when teaching children that they can have different backgrounds and interests but still be friends with someone. The illustrations are affectionate, snuggly and portray the warmth of friendship. Highly recommend!

Cute story about friendship and appreciating other's for who/how they are instead of wanting everyone to like and do the same things you do. I think it's good story for kids and the illustrations are adorable.

What a cute story. My grandkids loved the story and the pictures. The illustrations are fantastic!

A very sweet story about friendship. Cute illustrations too.

This is the perfect children's book. The beautiful illustrations draw you in and the story itself provides a great message for young kids.

I bought this book and read it for the first time today. It is truly an amazing book that has a lesson that every child should learn. Things for me personally would have been much easier growing up if the world thought the same way "Finbar and Fiona" do!

My nephews love Finbar and Fiona! The characters are unique and the story offers a great lesson for kids. I would recommend for certain!

So cute! The story is precious and the art is beautiful.
