Customer Reviews

I downloaded this because I liked the variety of cookies and we travel in an RV. So space is limited and the preparation isn't crazy.

it isn't that the recipes are bad, it's just that they're nothing special. And they aren't a great choice for holidays. The number of recipes is limited, 20 something. But the two biggest problems are the recipes themselves. Like I said, they're nice, there just isn't anything original. These are all recipes you've seen before (if you have any experience). No new twists. Also, none of the recipes are reminiscent of the holidays. There aren't cookies luxuriously stuffed with chocolate, fruits, nuts--any ingredient you only use to excess once or twice a year or only indulge in at holiday time. And lastly, the recipes are low-yield. Only two of them contain more than two cups of flour. During holidays, I make a larger volume of cookies, and it's nice if I don't have to mark up my page with fractions and multiplication tables. All that said, the recipes aren't bad recipes. They're just probably not the special recipes you might want to turn to during the holiday season.
