Customer Reviews

"The book's design has some lovely touches that make it fun to look at. The pages that divide the chapters are collages of pretty fabric scraps. Fabric scraps are used as decorative elements on the materials lists for each project. The sidebars are outlined in circles that look like wrapped thread. I love these little decorative elements." --While She Naps

Love this book! Several projects that I'd like to make. Already working on one!

I am enjoying this sewing book,, It gives me the chance to learn more and create some great presents,, Love this book and the author. She always explains this really well. I've made one project so far and have plans for others.

Nice little book with great projects! Love it!

A lot are simple, beginner projects. All in all, full of cute, fun ideas. Perfect as gifts!

Lots of fun projects.

I am a beginner ,I do like this book ,I haven't created any thing from it yet ..But it has beautiful pictures and directions seem fairly clear.

Book was very thoughtful and well written. I found it quite easy to understand and the visuals went along way to solidify the instructions. I love this book and will highly recommended.
