This book offers great tips and guidelines on how to make your ownhydroponis at home. This is best for people who don't have much space at home but love to grow there ownveges at home. For me I like to plant lettuce cause my kids love to eat it with mayo.

Not really all that. Just VERY basic stuff that really doesn't help. I would say a waste of money as everything that is in here is on the internet. You're better off watching youtube videos.

Useful, add more knowledge to my existing experiment hydroponics. However, if you could write more about vertical hydroponic, it would be a plus.
