Michael P. Kearns was admitted to the Illinois bar in 1969 and has been in practice ever since. Currently, he is teaching business law at Roosevelt University and North Park College in Chicago, as he has been for a number of years. Michael also has 40 years of teaching experience.

Outstanding book, I wouldn't expect nothing else from books Delmar Paralegal . I am hoping that to be a part of NALA which is the nation's leading professional association for paralegals, and become a certified paralegal. The book looks exactly the way it does on the web site and even though it has some wear and tear I am enjoying reading this book and you may too.

Got this book for a lot less than the college was offering it for! This is a good book. The basic laws haven't changed that much, and after learning these and state/local laws, I learned a lot more than I thought.

cheap, toward my future law studies;
