THE RIVER OF GOD: A Satsang On STRANGER BY THE RIVER

Synopsis

The River of God is an image that pervades most religions, and is the title of a wonderful chapter in "Stranger By The River" - a spiritual classic by Paul Twitchell. In this Satsang, I discuss both the metaphor and the reality of this great Spiritual Current (known as the Holy Spirit, Word of God, Ruach, Kalma, Logos and Shabda) and how it applies to both our inner spiritual exploration and growth, and living a more spiritually awakened life here on Planet Earth. Thank you . . . with Love, Michael Turner <http://spiritualfreedomssatsang.org>

Customer Reviews

I was completely in alignment with the author on this. I have often been perplexed by people who want to bypass the experience of the physical plane. Michael Turner explains the reason for being 'here' in an easy-to-read, conversational format, whilst conveying his messages in relatable metaphors and analogies. Short, but sweet, this little book puts life in perspective. I highly recommend giving it a look-see.
