If I never actually fry the chicken, this was a great read and a great book to own. However, I do plan to purchase the same type of fryer Rebecca Lang used and get started soon. The fryer is on my birthday present list...Lots of tempting recipes and easy instructions. I read through every recipe and marked the ones I will be trying and there are quite a few. I have been using a famous Food Network's recipe and am always complimented on the south Georgia version. But I am looking forward to a real fryer for chicken as suggested and used in these recipes. Branching out a bit. She also suggested using a good seasoned cast iron skillet but it always makes such a mess and keeping the temperature even is difficult. Although, somehow my mom's and grandmother's chicken was always perfect in the iron skillet. It could have been the natural chicken vs. the grocery store version that I never buy having learned my lesson which is also mentioned in the book; fresh, organic chickens, only.

Ms. Lang does it again! She is a southern cook who knows how to tempt your taste buds with delicious recipes. And who doesn't love to indulge and eat fried chicken? These are delicious recipes that anyone can enjoy!
